The South African Hall of Fame is a story of passion and perseverance, we celebrate great achievements by extra-ordinary South Africans in order to inspire our youth and empower them to reach their full potential. We believe that every human being is uniquely created. We celebrate the authenticity of people but also embrace the value in everything we do. We learn from others without blindly copying what they do. We strive to be authentic!

By celebrating the highest forms of achievement in sport, arts and culture, we endeavour to inspire all South Africans to individual greatness.

When it comes to the founding purpose of the Hall of Fame, our aim has always been to empower the youth of South Africa to become holistically developed, healthy individuals. It is our conviction that they will become so by aspiring to something great, something bigger than themselves. All this through the inspiration of successful individuals and teams, showcased by The South African Hall of Fame.

The Hall of Fame stands for excellence, with our vision to build an endearing brand, representative of the highest forms of achievement, we believe that we can be the change and inspiration millions of South Africans need.

Historically our successes include, the Induction Into the South African Hall of Fame of the 1995 Rugby World Cup Champion [Springboks], Baby Jake Matlala, Nelson Mandela, Gary Player, Ladysmith Black Mambazo, 1996 AFCON Champions [Bafana Bafana], Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Shaun Tomson, Precious McKenzie etc. We take pride in each inductee, as well as the wonderful platform that is created by The Hall of Fame.

That's why, the South African Hall of Fame are privileged to be in a position to partner with the Arnold Classic Africa team, where the best of the best will showcase their inspirational talents. An annual Hall of Fame Induction ceremony will take place during the Arnold Classic event recognising even more South African sporting greats. During this ceremony the talent of the future can experience the deserved recognition to the Inductee by The South African Hall of Fame.
